LOCAL AND GENERAL

Mrs. George H. Miranda will be among the departing passengers on the Claudine for Maui this evening. Taking sugar and general cargo, the Matson Navigation steamer Enterprise is reported to have sailed from Hilo for San Francisco at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening.

The United States Army transport Logan, from San Francisco to Manila by the way of Honolulu and Guam, is reported to have sailed from the California port at noon today.

Mail and passengers which left here on June 26th in the Matson Navigation steamer Honolulu are reported to have arrived at San Francisco at 4 o'clock of the afternoon of Wednesday.

Sailing from Mahukona on June 15, the schooner Inca is reported to have reached Astoria, Ore., today. The Inca was discharged of a shipment of Australian coal at the Hawaii port.

The famous barkentine S. N. Castle, which put into the port of Honolulu in dire distress some months ago, and afterward proceeded to San Francisco, is reported to have left the Coast port for Tahiti on last Tuesday.

M. R. Lemmon, registrar of the board of health, reports that seventeen deaths during the month of June were caused by tuberculosis, typhoid fever and para-typhoid fever, the first named disease resulting fatally in fifteen cases.

The summer term of the normal school will open at 8:30 o'clock next Monday morning. The teaching staff will consist of seven instructors. Acting Governor Mott-Smith and Superintendent Pope will be present at the opening exercises.

Word was received here by wireless today that L. M. Parmer, of the clerical staff of the Hawaii Railway, received a broken leg yesterday at Mahukona and is coming on the Mauna Kea arriving tomorrow morning, to receive medical attention. The nature of the accident was not disclosed in the message.

Lily Hookano, the native woman arrested with Norman B. Smith about two weeks ago on the charges of adultery and bigamy, has filed suit in circuit court asking for a divorce from her legal husband, Koa Hookano. The hearing was set for 9 o'clock this morning, but because of the absence of Judge Whitney will probably be heard tomorrow.

HAWAII'S VOTE AGAINST ROOT.

vote according to what we think is right."

"Hawaiians have a missionary conscience," said Charles Wilcox, another member of the party. "Perhaps that explains the vote to you."

Next to the two delegates and two alternates from the Philippines, the Hawaiians came the longest distance. They are twelve in all and are quartered at the Hotel La Salle. Their trip is an expensive one. They are paying $75.50 for railroad fare, not counting berth rates and each man buys from $110 to $135 for his steamship passage.

Hitting the High Prices.
"We seem to be hitting the high prices in Chicago," said Mr. Coney, "but I don't suppose that all your living is as high as ours is now. We had a nice meal for six last night at $4 apiece, while today we paid only 40 cents."

"I don't doubt that living is cheaper in Hawaii. Many people from the states are coming out there, right along and are finding it an excellent place to stay. There are wonderful farming opportunities, especially on the government land. The average man from the states won't miss anything. We have the republican and the democratic parties, and we also have some agitation for woman's suffrage. This comes, singularly enough, from the native women of Hawaii, who are influenced by the fact that California women have secured suffrage and think they ought to have it, too."

"Come out and see our volcano. We've got the biggest live volcano in the world. Something doing all the time."

TIMELY WARNING FOR PENSION APPLICANTS

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18.—The Commissioner of Pensions in response to numerous inquiries made by western members of Congress advises that applicants for pension or increase of pension in the total disability clause of the new pension act of May 11, 1912, should file with the ordinary application an affidavit showing the nature of the total disability, together with the date, place and circumstances under which it was incurred in the line of duty. If further evidence is required the Pension Bureau will request it.

By filing such an affidavit the applicant will secure early action upon his claim.

ONE FATALITY, SIX INJURED RECORD OF 4TH

One death and six accidents were resultant of the day's merrymaking yesterday although only one of the accidents was resultant from fireworks, the remainder being caused by the vast crowds which filled the streets, crowded the street cars and jammed Kapiolani Park to the point of suffocation.

The death of George Meyer by drowning was the one fatality of the day.

Five-year-old Manuel Freitas was slightly injured by the horse of K. Osborn, one of the aides of the parade. Freitas was at the racetrack at the time the accident happened and his bare feet were badly lacerated by the hoofs of Osborn's horse. Osborn was trying to keep the crowd back and his horse stepped on the boy's feet.

Eleven-year-old William Kalehiwa fired a cannon cracker, startling his uncle, who proceeded to admonish the child against repeating the offense by kicking him twice. The boy was slightly bruised as a result.

William Kim, a Chinese boy, was slightly injured by a stray revolver bullet last night about 9 o'clock. He was sitting on a bench at Ala Park at the time. Kim was taken to the Queen's hospital.

James Kaiona was slightly injured in a collision which occurred yesterday morning between an automobile which he was driving and another driven by Chu Chal. The accident occurred in front of Wall, Nichols & Company.

A Japanese boy named Sato was run down and slightly injured by Chung Lau, a hack driver, at Pawa Junction yesterday noon.

The most serious accident of the morning nearly resulted in the death of the victim. Edward Keef, an employee of the Pacific Engineering Company. He was internally injured and received a badly lacerated leg as the result of a collision between a Waiata and a King street car, Waiata bound. Keef was riding on the fender of the Waiata car along with several others who were unable to get inside, when the accident happened.

The Waiata car had just passed Pawa Junction and was closely followed by the Kaimuki car when the trolley of the King street car jumped to the Kaimuki wire, which necessitated the backing of the Waiata car. The two cars crashed together and Keef received his injuries. Several others were badly shaken up.

CASES AWAIT DICKEY'S COMING

Difficulties of the fourth judicial circuit, on the island of Kauai, caused by the President's delay in appointing a successor to Judge Hardy, have been satisfactorily settled by Circuit Judge Robinson of Honolulu and Chief Justice Robertson.

The former, who returned from Kauai yesterday morning, says that the seven cases which required attention were continued by him to the next term of court, whether special or regular, so that as soon as Lyle A. Dickey receives confirmation of his appointment and qualifies he may proceed to Kauai, open court immediately and dispose of these, or he may wait until the fall term to handle them.

He says the congestion of prisoners was not as great as had been reported, but that all who desired temporary freedom were given the required opportunity by Chief Justice Robertson, who set bail for them several days ago.

"I did not call a jury to try the seven cases on hand," said Judge Robinson, "because the empanelling and the call would have taken about fifteen days, and I figure that Mr. Dickey will receive his appointment within that length of time. He will be able then to take charge with very little loss of time."

IS RECOVERING FROM INJURIES

The condition of Miss Ruth Henry, one of the teachers lost in the mountains for three days, and who was injured by a fall over a precipice, is reported as improving. Miss Henry, according to her physician, will be confined to her bed for a week at least. She is at J. P. Cooke's Kaipapua residence, where she is receiving the best of care.

To Hamanu Kilili, a Hawaiian, goes the credit for the rescue of Miss Henry from the precarious position in which she was found. Kilili, who weighs 225 pounds, carried Miss Henry on his back over two waterfalls, lowering himself over the precipices with his burden and risking his life each time. Kilili is a magnificent type of the true son of the soil. He did not seem to think he had done anything wonderful or dangerous in accomplishing the feat which brought Miss Henry to safety.

Andrew Adams is generally hailed as the real rescuer of the five imperiled teachers. He assumed general charge of all the searching parties, mapped out the routes each was to pursue so that no ground would be left uncovered, and went without food and sleep until the rescue was accomplished.

HAWAII WOMAN LOSES RACE FOR NATL. HONOR

Mrs. Philip N. Carpenter of New York, defeated for the presidency of the General Federation of Women's Clubs of America in San Francisco yesterday, is a former Honolulu girl and well known here.

Mrs. Carpenter lost after one of the most exciting races in the history of the federation—and the races for office are always exciting in this noted woman's organization.

Mrs. Carpenter was born in Connecticut, spent her childhood in western New York, her girlhood in California and Hawaii, lived in New Hampshire and has been a resident of New York city for the past twenty years.

She is a graduate of Mills College, has a degree of L.L.D. from the New York University law school and was admitted to the New York bar in 1897.

She is a past president of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs, Sorosis, the National Society of New England Women and the Women Lawyers' Club, and a member of Woman's Press Club, Women's Republican Club, National California Club, National Arts Club, Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of 1812, New York Equal Suffrage League and for four years a member of the board of the general federation and chairman of the last biennial program.

She was the first woman to win a case in the Court of Appeals in the State of New York and is a director of the Woman's Bar Association of New York City.

For her personal qualifications it is declared that she has "a trained mind, wide experience, tact and sympathy, which added to native ability give her indisputable advantage in parliamentary procedure and the making of just decisions in discussions."

ANOTHER COL. FOR SECOND FOOT

The number of colonels at Schofield Barracks will not be reduced for any length of time, even though Colonel F. W. Mansfield, the post commander, leaves next week on a two month's furlough, which will probably be extended until the date of his retirement, November 11.

War Department orders received at headquarters this morning show that Colonel Francis H. French, now a student officer at the Army War College, has been attached to the 2nd Infantry. He is to join the regiment as soon as possible.

This, on its face, looks like an odd arrangement, for with the departure of Edward J. McClelland, the vacancy of the 1st Infantry becomes post commander, by virtue of seniority. This leaves the 1st with a colonel who has the large responsibilities of a brigade post on his shoulders besides the cares of his regiment, while the 2nd will have two full colonels attached to it during the absence of its regular commander, Colonel Rogers having been ached to it some months ago. It was expected that any new colonel sent here would be attached to the 1st, to assist Colonel McClelland, and that Colonel Rogers would be left to run the 2nd.

That a brigadier general will be sent to command Schofield before long is the general belief, and many friends of Colonel Mansfield thought that he would be elevated to the rank for his last four months of service in the army, but with the announcement that the President has filled the existing vacancies, this hope goes glimmering.

The three appointments recommended are promotions to the rank of brigadier general, the appointees being General Clarence R. Edwards, Colonel George F. Chase and Colonel Edward J. McClelland. The vacancies were caused by the death of Brigadier General Daniel H. Bruns, formerly in command of the department of California, and the promotion of Brigadier General Witherspoon.

General Edwards is president of the Infantry association and represents that branch of the service. He has been chief of the bureau of insular affairs since 1901.

INDOOR YACHT CLUB DANCE BIG SUCCESS

The Indoor Yacht Club dance given on the roof of the Young Hotel last night as a wind-up for the day's festivities was successful from every point of view. There was a large attendance including Army and Navy officers and members of the prominent families of the city.

Each ballroom had its own orchestra and on the roof garden proper attendants distributed punch and sandwiches, provided by Commodore Warren Wood, one of the visiting yachtsmen.

A neat sum was raised to swell the fund used by the Hawaii Yacht Club in entertaining the visitors.

YOUNG SKIPPER IN BIG LINER

Captain Emory Rice, now in command of one of the largest liners that floats in the Pacific, the Pacific Mail leviathan Mongolia was the happy recipient of a host of sincere congratulations from a circle of old time friends, upon his arrival at Honolulu yesterday morning.

Captain Rice has steadily risen in the ranks from an under officer of long standing in the Mail service, going over to the China-Manila Steamship Company as a commander, later leaving the steamer Zaffro to take charge of the navigation bridge in the China.

When Captain Henry Morton of the Mongolia was offered the chance to assume command of the private steam yacht owned by a French Duke, Rice was selected from the long list of available navigators to fill the position of commander in the Mongolia.

A fine voyage from San Francisco was reported with the arrival of the Mongolia at Alakea wharf early yesterday morning.

Purser Jerome, states that the trip left but little to be desired.

A large percentage of the list of passengers who embarked at San Francisco left the vessel at Honolulu. Many of them are prominent in governmental, social and business affairs in the islands, and are returning from business and pleasure trips to the mainland.

Passengers for Honolulu included 86 cabin and 15 second class. The through list numbered 64 cabin, 12 second class and 116 Asiatic passengers.

The Mongolia was dispatched for Japan ports, Manila and Hongkong at five o'clock last evening after leaving 263 tons general cargo from the mainland.

The liner is continuing the journey to the orient with a rather small amount of through freight, there being less than two thousand tons carried as shown on the manifest.

Honolulu received 142 sacks of later mainland mail. In the specie tanks was a small amount of treasure for Manila.

The vessel is taking a number of automobiles to the Philippine port.

WITNESSED CORONATION OF YOUNG KING OF SIAM

With two skeleton regiments of infantry, and a scattering of casuals, sick, and discharged soldiers and marines, the army transport Sherman is well loaded on the last leg of her run from the Philippines to home.

The infantry commands are the Sixth, Colonel Lea Febinger, and the Ninth, Colonel C. J. Crane. The former numbers 628 enlisted men and the latter only 421. Both regiments were drawn on heavily for men transferred to the permanent colonial army in the Philippines, but will be recruited up to full peace strength as soon as they arrive in continental United States.

One of the most interesting characters in the army today, and one of the best known, is Colonel Febinger. Last December he visited Bangkok, the capital of Siam, as the military representative of the United States at the coronation of King Maha-Vajiravudh, the successor to King Chulalongkorn, the ruler who showed such signal favors to General U. S. Grant, when he visited Bangkok in 1877. The Siam court has held the United States army in high esteem ever since, and Colonel Febinger was much impressed with what he saw. It seems that the Boy Scout movement has reached Siam, and that it has taken a stronghold there.

The coronation was a marvelous spectacle, and one never to be forgotten by those fortunate enough to witness it," said Colonel Febinger. "The Oriental costumes, and the gorgeous red, blue and cloth-of-gold forms of the guards and gentlemen in arms, made a perfect rainbow of colors. There were thousands of Siam boys, wearing the uniforms of the Boy Scouts, much being made of the organization in Siam."

The Ninth Infantry is quite a famous organization, having taken a leading part in the relief of Peking by the allied armies, at the time of the Sino-Japanese war.

The Housewife's Health Is Precious

The happiness of the whole family depends greatly on the health and strength of the housewife. If she is weak and worn out, fretful and nervous she cannot be the wise and patient adviser of her children, the congenial companion of her husband, the calm mistress of her many trying household duties that she was when in perfect health.

For such women nothing equals
